Local Clergy to Discuss Spirituality in Screening of “The Invocation” as part of Palm Beach International Film Festival
Screening hosted by Advent Lutheran Church

WHO: Reverend Andrew Hagen of Advent Lutheran Church, Father Bob Archon of St. Marks Greek Orthodox Church, and Rabbi Robert Silvers of Congregation B'Nai Israel

WHAT: Screening of Emmanuel Itier’s “The Invocation” as part of the 13th Annual Palm Beach International Film Festival.

WHEN: Sunday, April 13, 1 p.m.

WHERE: Advent Lutheran Church, 300 East Yamato Road, Boca Raton (corner of Yamato and North Dixie Highway) in the Church Sanctuary

BACKGROUND: “The Invocation,” by feature film producer Emmanuel Itier, Is a documentary about “God and the world through Religion, Spirituality, Science, History, Politics and Art.” The film features interviews with Deepak Chopra, actor Jim Carey, and clergy from many faiths. According to Itier, the film’s message of peace, unity and connectivity and the goal is to show that looking for God leads to finding mankind. It is an invitation to elevate our school of thinking and change our code of acting with each other.

The Palm Beach International Film Festival is a 501(c)(3) not for profit organization supporting film programs in local schools and dedicated to making a difference in the lives of future filmmakers by helping them fulfill their dreams to one-day work in the world of film.
